Jungle Jack's Guarantee

We guarantee that our plumerias are true-to-type and in prime condition. In the event a plant is inadvertently mislabeled, we will replace it with the correct type (if available). Please note that flower color, size, and scent, as well as plant performance can vary widely due to climate variances and nature of care.

All purchases are final and non-refundable. We do permit exchanges within 30 days of purchase, assuming that the returned specimen is in reasonable condition. Both return and exchange shipping costs are the responsibility of the customer.

Buying Rooted/Established Plants from Jungle Jack's Plumeria

Growing containers of Jungle Jack's varieties are available in container sizes from 1 gallon to 5 gallon. One gallon sizes are generally available May-August, with larger sizes offered year-round. Since sizes vary for each variety and by season, so we won't send you an invoice until after an inventory check. Feel free to inquire about availability before placing your order. Larger size growing containers are available for local customers.

Jungle Jack's Plumeria Catalog, Volume Two

Our latest plumeria catalog is available for $14.50 (US) and $19.50 (int'l). Price includes S/H. The catalog can be ordered from www.JungleJacksPlumeria.com and/or combined with any plant order

Shipping Policy

We ship to the entire USA, except Hawaii, via FedEx Ground® with Delivery Confirmation. Please note that all plants are shipped in their original growing container, not bareroot, unless specifically requested. We believe the additional cost is more than justified by the arrival of healthy plants that do not need to be re-established. Please allow up to 2-3 weeks for delivery.

Wholesale Orders are Welcome

Wholesale pricing will only be offered on presentation of a valid California re-sale certificate or out-of-state business license. Please inquire for specifics.
